

Tomlinson are an employee owned business that has over 90 years' experience supplying foiling and embossing dies both domestic and worldwide.

Our bespoke dies are produced in brass, copper or magnesium and are suitable for all sectors of the print trade.

We are happy to work with designers helping original concepts become reality.

Let our experienced staff help you find a solution to your finishing requirements.